Christmas Lights Bingo

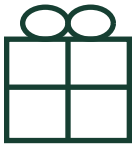

All ages with a grown-up | 15–30 minutes

You need: Your eyes, this board, and a safe route

1. A grown-up picks a short, accessible route or an at-home window view. Stay on public paths; passengers play during drives.

2. Tap or mark each picture you spot. Find three in a row, or work together to spot any five.

3. Choose the display that made everyone smile. Missing a square is fine—there is no race.

 Reindeer	 Candy cane	 Snowman
 Decorated palm	 Sparkling star	 Santa
 Glowing tree	 Wrapped gift	 Twinkling lights

Luka's Christmas Discovery Hunt

Ages 3+ with a grown-up | 10–20 minutes

You need: A familiar room or a grown-up-led walk

1. Choose a room, a seated view or a safe outdoor space with a grown-up. Only look in agreed places; no private drawers or strangers' belongings.

2. Look for the five discoveries below. Point, describe or draw them; no photos or collecting are needed.

3. Share your favorite find. If something is missing, imagine it or draw it instead.

LUKA'S FIVE LITTLE DISCOVERIES

- [ ] Something red
- [ ] Something that jingles
- [ ] A tiny star
- [ ] A handmade decoration
- [ ] An act of kindness

Indoor version: point to, imagine or draw each discovery from a comfortable seat.

North Pole Family Game Night

Ages 4+ with a grown-up | 20–30 minutes

You need: A spoon, ribbon, empty box and scrap paper

1. An adult gathers safe everyday objects. One person secretly chooses an object and gives three clues: where it belongs, what it does and a silly imaginary job.

2. Guess together after each clue. Take turns for five rounds. Younger players may point or draw; anyone may pass.

3. Try the Silly Story Desk: pick a prompt below and add one sentence each. End when everybody has had a turn.

THE SILLY STORY DESK

1. The reindeer ordered pizza.
2. Santa lost his left slipper.
3. A snowman opened a lemonade stand.
4. The wrapping paper learned to dance.
5. A tiny elf became head of the library.

My Favorite Things Show-and-Tell

All ages with a grown-up | 15–20 minutes

You need: A favorite toy, book or handmade creation you own

1. Choose one safe favorite thing you already own, or draw something you enjoy. Everyone keeps their own item.

2. Take turns: “I love this because…” and “One thing we could do together is…” Listening or pointing is welcome.

3. Draw a favorite in the coloring studio’s blank invention page, or use paper. Ask before touching someone else’s treasure.

Give a Little Christmas Adventure

All ages with a grown-up | 10–15 minutes

You need: Paper, a marker and grown-up help with scissors

1. Pick a coupon below. A grown-up agrees what is possible, including timing, supplies and any cost.
2. Print or copy the coupon onto scrap paper. An adult helps cut it out. Add names on paper at home, not online.
3. Give it with a smile and choose a date together. Change the plan if someone's needs or energy change.

Pick Your Christmas Adventure

All ages with a grown-up | 10–30 minutes

You need: Things you already have at home

1. Choose cozy, creative, outdoors, silly or kind. Ask everyone what feels comfortable; a quiet option always counts.
2. Try the matching invitation below. An adult checks any tools, allergies, weather or route before you begin.
3. Share one thing you liked. Repeat it another day, or choose a new mood. There is no list to finish.

- [ ] Cozy: Make a blanket reading nook.
- [ ] Creative: Draw a paper star for your window.
- [ ] Outdoors: Take a short lights walk; a window view counts.
- [ ] Silly: Invent a reindeer dance; seated moves count.
- [ ] Kind: Make a thank-you card for someone you know.
