CHRISTMAS TOGETHER / PAGE 98: CALENDAR, COOKIES, KINDNESS & LUKA

Bring a marker. Make a little room on the rug. Let the daydreaming begin.

Make it a tradition.

01 Set the scene.

Christmas music. A washable marker. A cozy spot together. A circled wish is an idea, not a promise.

02 Circle the possibilities.

Each gift has a permanent code. Let children browse, imagine and choose a few favorites.

03 Turn wishes into a list.

Scan the code below or visit mywishbook.xyz/plan. Enter the circled gift codes and review the choices before shopping.

The parent planner

Review wishes, open retailer links and share your list with adult gift-givers.

Product photos show retailer examples; colors, variants and personalization may differ. Festive scenes are AI-created inspiration. Check manufacturer age guidance, price and availability. Browsing chapters are not safety ratings.

This downloadable preview is not an order for a mailed book. Some links are affiliate links. As an Amazon Associate we earn from qualifying purchases. The planner does not automatically fill retailer carts.

Small hands. Big discoveries.

[illegible]

A green toy oven with a red dial and buttons, surrounded by yellow toy food items like pizza, hot dogs, and chicken nuggets.

Swap days. Skip days. Make it yours.

Most ideas cost nothing. Choose what fits your family, energy and weather. Details follow; circle your favorites and let the rest be optional.

Little moments, lasting memories.

DECEMBER 1-15 / PICK WHAT FEELS GOOD

01 MEMORY • 10 min

Start a memory jar

Decorate an empty jar or envelope. Each person writes or draws one thing they hope to do together. Choose three simple traditions.

02 KINDNESS • 15 min

Make a kindness chain

Cut paper strips with an adult. Write a kind action on each, loop them into a chain and choose one to try this week.

03 KINDNESS • 10 min

Thank a helper

Draw a thank-you for a teacher, librarian or another helper. An adult helps deliver it or send a private photo.

04 TOGETHER • 10 min

Build our playlist

Everyone picks a festive song. Take turns sharing why you like yours, then have a one-song living-room dance.

05 ADVENTURE • 45 min

Follow the twinkle

Try the Christmas-lights adventure in this book. Keep the route short, or admire lights from a window at home.

06 STORY • 10 min

Meet Luka & Bramble

Read Luka's story together. Ask: What helped Bramble feel welcome? Think of someone you could welcome, too.

07 KINDNESS • 15 min

Send a little cheer

Make a cheerful card for someone you know. Let an adult check the address and decide how to deliver it.

08 MAKING • 15 min

Fold a paper star

Draw stars on scrap paper, decorate them and ask an adult to help cut them out. Make a little indoor star gallery.

09 MEMORY • 15 min

Ask for an old story

Call a relative or trusted family friend. Ask about their favorite childhood holiday. Write down one lovely detail.

10 KINDNESS • 15 min

Choose a giving wish

Browse the Big Hearts pages. Choose a cause to learn about, or plan a free act of kindness. Giving money is optional.

11 TOGETHER • 30 min

Living-room campout

Arrange blankets and cushions safely on the floor. Share a favorite story or family movie, then name your coziest moment.

12 MAKING • 20 min

Make silly snowflakes

An adult helps fold and snip paper snowflakes. Give each a funny name. Younger children can draw snow instead.

13 PLAY • 30 min

Let the youngest choose

Let the youngest person pick a game everyone can join. Adapt the rules together and celebrate a kind move.

14 KINDNESS • 10 min

Do a secret helpful job

Pick an age-appropriate task: tidy shoes, set napkins or put books away. Leave a little paper star when it is done.

15 STORY • 20 min

A library-book night

Read a borrowed book, a favorite you own or a made-up story. Each person adds a new ending.

An adult plans outings, supervises tools and checks allergies. Quiet alternatives always count.

Little moments, lasting memories.

16

KINDNESS • 15 min

Check what is needed

An adult checks a local food bank or charity's current wish list. Only gather requested items you can comfortably give.

17

MEMORY • 15 min

Take a silly portrait

Pick a funny pose and a festive backdrop. Take a family photo if everyone agrees, or draw the scene instead.

18

ADVENTURE • 15 min

A tiny lights walk

An adult chooses a safe short route. Count stars and glowing trees. Stay on public paths; an indoor light hunt counts, too.

19

BAKING • 75 min

Bake stars for Santa

Make the shortbread stars with an adult. Save a few for a family tasting. If baking does not suit you, decorate a paper cookie.

20

KINDNESS • 15 min

Deliver a little joy

With an adult, deliver your card to someone you know. For food gifts, ask about allergies and preferences before baking.

21

TOGETHER • 10 min

Gratitude at the table

At a meal or snack, everyone names one person and one small moment they are thankful for. Write one down.

22

REST • Your pace

A cozy pause

Skip the to-do list. Choose quiet music, a familiar book or simply a cuddle. Nothing needs to be finished today.

23

TRADITION • 15 min

Pack a Christmas Eve box

Use a basket or shoebox you own. Add something cozy, something to read and a small activity. Familiar favorites are perfect.

An adult plans outings, supervises tools and checks allergies. Quiet alternatives always count.

24

CHRISTMAS EVE • 20 min

Cookies, wishes & a story

Set out a few cooled cookies, finish your Santa letter and read Luka's story. Let everyone share one wish for someone else.

25

CHRISTMAS DAY • 10 min

Notice the little moments

Pause for a thank-you, a hug if welcome and a shared game. Each person chooses one moment to remember.

26

KINDNESS • 15 min

Make thank-you notes

Draw or write a specific thank-you for a gift, a visit or someone's time. An adult helps send it.

27

MAKING • 20 min

Give paper a second act

Turn old cards or clean wrapping scraps into gift tags or a collage. An adult handles scissors and removes staples first.

28

ADVENTURE • 20 min

Look for little wonders

On a supervised walk, spot something red, something round and something that makes you smile. Try the same hunt indoors.

29

MEMORY • 20 min

Seal our time capsule

Fill the memory page in this book. Add a drawing, a paper star or a photo to an envelope. Write next December's opening date.

30

KINDNESS • 10 min

Make a grateful call

Call a trusted friend or relative with an adult. Tell them one thing you appreciated about them this year.

31

CELEBRATE • 15 min

A family countdown

Count down at noon or bedtime. Share a favorite memory and choose one kind thing to carry into the new year.

Santa's shortbread stars

A little butter, a little sparkle, a very merry kitchen.

THE CHRISTMAS EVE COOKIE CLUB

Gather your ingredients

1 cup (226 g) unsalted butter, softened

1/2 cup (100 g) granulated sugar

2 1/4 cups (280 g) all-purpose flour

1 teaspoon vanilla extract

1/4 teaspoon fine salt

Optional: 2 tablespoons festive sprinkles

Makes about 24–30 small stars. Allow about 75 minutes, including chilling and cooling. Yield and baking time vary with cutter size and oven.

You will need: a bowl, mixer or sturdy spoon, rolling pin, 2-inch star cutter, baking sheets, parchment and a cooling rack. A small round cutter works, too.

ILLUSTRATIVE AI-CREATED RECIPE PHOTOGRAPH / YOUR COOKIES WILL BE UNIQUE

Mix. Cut. Bake.

Make the kitchen part of the memory.

01 Cream the butter

Beat the softened butter and sugar for about 2 minutes until smooth. Mix in the vanilla.

02 Make the dough

Stir flour and salt together, then mix into the butter just until a dough forms. Gently press any crumbs together; do not overwork.

03 Chill & prepare

Flatten dough into a disc, cover and chill for 30 minutes. An adult heats the oven to 325°F / 165°C and lines baking sheets.

04 Cut little stars

Roll dough about 1/4 inch thick on a lightly floured surface. Cut stars, gently reroll scraps and place about 2 inches apart. Add sprinkles if using.

05 Bake with a grown-up

An adult bakes for about 16–20 minutes, until the edges are lightly golden. Start checking early; size and ovens change the timing.

06 Cool & share

Let cookies rest on the tray for 5 minutes, then move to a rack. Cool completely. Choose a few for Santa and enjoy the rest together.

Grown-ups handle the oven, hot trays and mixer. Do not taste raw flour or dough. Contains wheat and dairy; check all ingredients and use a trusted allergy-appropriate recipe if needed.

Our cookie club name:

Follow the twinkle.

A family adventure that ends with a story worth keeping.

01 Make the invitation

Fill in a ticket on the next page. Slip it into an envelope or leave it beside everyone's shoes.

02 Choose your little route

An adult chooses a safe walk or drive and checks weather and access. Plan 30–60 minutes, or just ten. Use the spotting game along the way.

03 Let everyone lead a moment

Take turns choosing a favorite light display or song. Give friendly, private awards: “twinkliest tree” or “most cheerful window.”

04 Bring the wonder home

Enjoy a familiar snack or warm drink, read Luka's story, and draw the favorite thing you saw. Save the ticket with your time capsule.

Stay on public paths, cross with an adult and keep drive-time games passenger-only. An indoor light hunt or a window-view adventure is just as welcome. No purchase required.

A STORY TO READ TOGETHER

Luka and the Little Christmas Visitor

One lost reindeer. One warm welcome. A kindness that reaches all the way to the stars.

GET COZY. TAKE TURNS. LET THE STORY BEGIN.

ONE QUIET CHRISTMAS EVE

A tiny jingle

Luka was supposed to be tucked up in bed. But first, he wanted to check on his little sister, Lucy. She was only a baby, and he liked knowing she was sleeping snugly.

Tiptoe. Tiptoe. Luka peeked at her door. Mama smiled from the hallway. Then they heard it. Jingle... jingle.

At the window stood a little reindeer with a crooked teal scarf. Snow dusted his nose. His ears drooped.

“Mama,” Luka whispered. “I think he needs us.”

A WARM WELCOME

Come in, little friend

Mama opened the door. The reindeer stepped inside, one careful hoof at a time. His little bell went ting.

"I'm Bramble," he said. "I followed a falling star. When I looked up, the sleigh was gone."

Luka fetched his softest blanket. Mama brought water, oats, and a crunchy carrot. Luka held his own mug of warm cocoa beside him.

"You can stay with us," Luka said. He tucked the blanket around Bramble. Slowly, the little reindeer's ears began to lift.

ROOM FOR ONE MORE

The best kind of gift

Together, they sang a Christmas song. Bramble hummed through a mouthful of oats. Luka giggled.

Luka chose a paper star from the tree. "This is for you," he said. "So you won't feel so far from home."

Then came a soft knock. On the porch stood Santa. "Bramble!" he cried. "There you are!"

Santa knelt and wrapped his arms around the little reindeer. "We've been looking everywhere." Bramble nuzzled his coat. "Luka helped me feel safe."

UNDER THE CHRISTMAS STARS

A kindness takes flight

“Thank you for looking after my friend,” Santa said. Luka smiled. “He needed someone.”

Bramble’s bell jingled brightly as he joined the team. Santa tucked the last parcel into the sleigh. There were still stockings to fill and rooftops to visit!

Luka and Mama waved from the window. Up, up, up went the sleigh, carrying Bramble safely into the stars.

Mama gave Luka a cuddle. “You don’t have to be big to make someone feel loved.” And with that warm thought tucked inside him, Luka was ready for bed.

TALK TOGETHER: How could we help someone feel welcome?

This was our Christmas.

Save a few little things. Keep a whole season.

Add this page, an adventure ticket, a drawing or a family photo to an envelope. Ask everyone before including their photo. Seal it and choose a date next December to open it together.

Christmas Lights Bingo

All ages with a grown-up | 15–30 minutes

You need: Your eyes, this board, and a safe route

1. A grown-up picks a short, accessible route or an at-home window view. Stay on public paths; passengers play during drives.
2. Tap or mark each picture you spot. Find three in a row, or work together to spot any five.
3. Choose the display that made everyone smile. Missing a square is fine—there is no race.

 Reindeer	 Candy cane	 Snowman
 Decorated palm	 Sparkling star	 Santa
 Glowing tree	 Wrapped gift	 Twinkling lights

Luka's Christmas Discovery Hunt

Ages 3+ with a grown-up | 10–20 minutes

You need: A familiar room or a grown-up-led walk

1. Choose a room, a seated view or a safe outdoor space with a grown-up. Only look in agreed places; no private drawers or strangers' belongings.
2. Look for the five discoveries below. Point, describe or draw them; no photos or collecting are needed.
3. Share your favorite find. If something is missing, imagine it or draw it instead.

LUKA'S FIVE LITTLE DISCOVERIES

- ☐ Something red
- ☐ Something that jingles
- ☐ A tiny star
- ☐ A handmade decoration
- ☐ An act of kindness

Indoor version: point to, imagine or draw each discovery from a comfortable seat.

PLAY, MAKE & EXPLORE / CHRISTMAS FUN PACK

North Pole Family Game Night

Ages 4+ with a grown-up | 20–30 minutes

You need: A spoon, ribbon, empty box and scrap paper

1. An adult gathers safe everyday objects. One person secretly chooses an object and gives three clues: where it belongs, what it does and a silly imaginary job.
2. Guess together after each clue. Take turns for five rounds. Younger players may point or draw; anyone may pass.
3. Try the Silly Story Desk: pick a prompt below and add one sentence each. End when everybody has had a turn.

THE SILLY STORY DESK

1. The reindeer ordered pizza.
2. Santa lost his left slipper.
3. A snowman opened a lemonade stand.
4. The wrapping paper learned to dance.
5. A tiny elf became head of the library.

Pick Your Christmas Adventure

All ages with a grown-up | 10–30 minutes

You need: Things you already have at home

1. Choose cozy, creative, outdoors, silly or kind. Ask everyone what feels comfortable; a quiet option always counts.
2. Try the matching invitation below. An adult checks any tools, allergies, weather or route before you begin.
3. Share one thing you liked. Repeat it another day, or choose a new mood. There is no list to finish.

- ☐ Cozy: Make a blanket reading nook.
- ☐ Creative: Draw a paper star for your window.
- ☐ Outdoors: Take a short lights walk; a window view counts.
- ☐ Silly: Invent a reindeer dance; seated moves count.
- ☐ Kind: Make a thank-you card for someone you know.

Dear Santa,

A little gratitude. A few wishes. A whole lot of magic.

This year, something that made me smile...

One kind thing I did or saw someone do...

A few wishes I am dreaming of...

And one wish I have for someone else...

With Christmas wishes,

Keep this letter at home or let an adult choose a postal program.

The night before the magic.

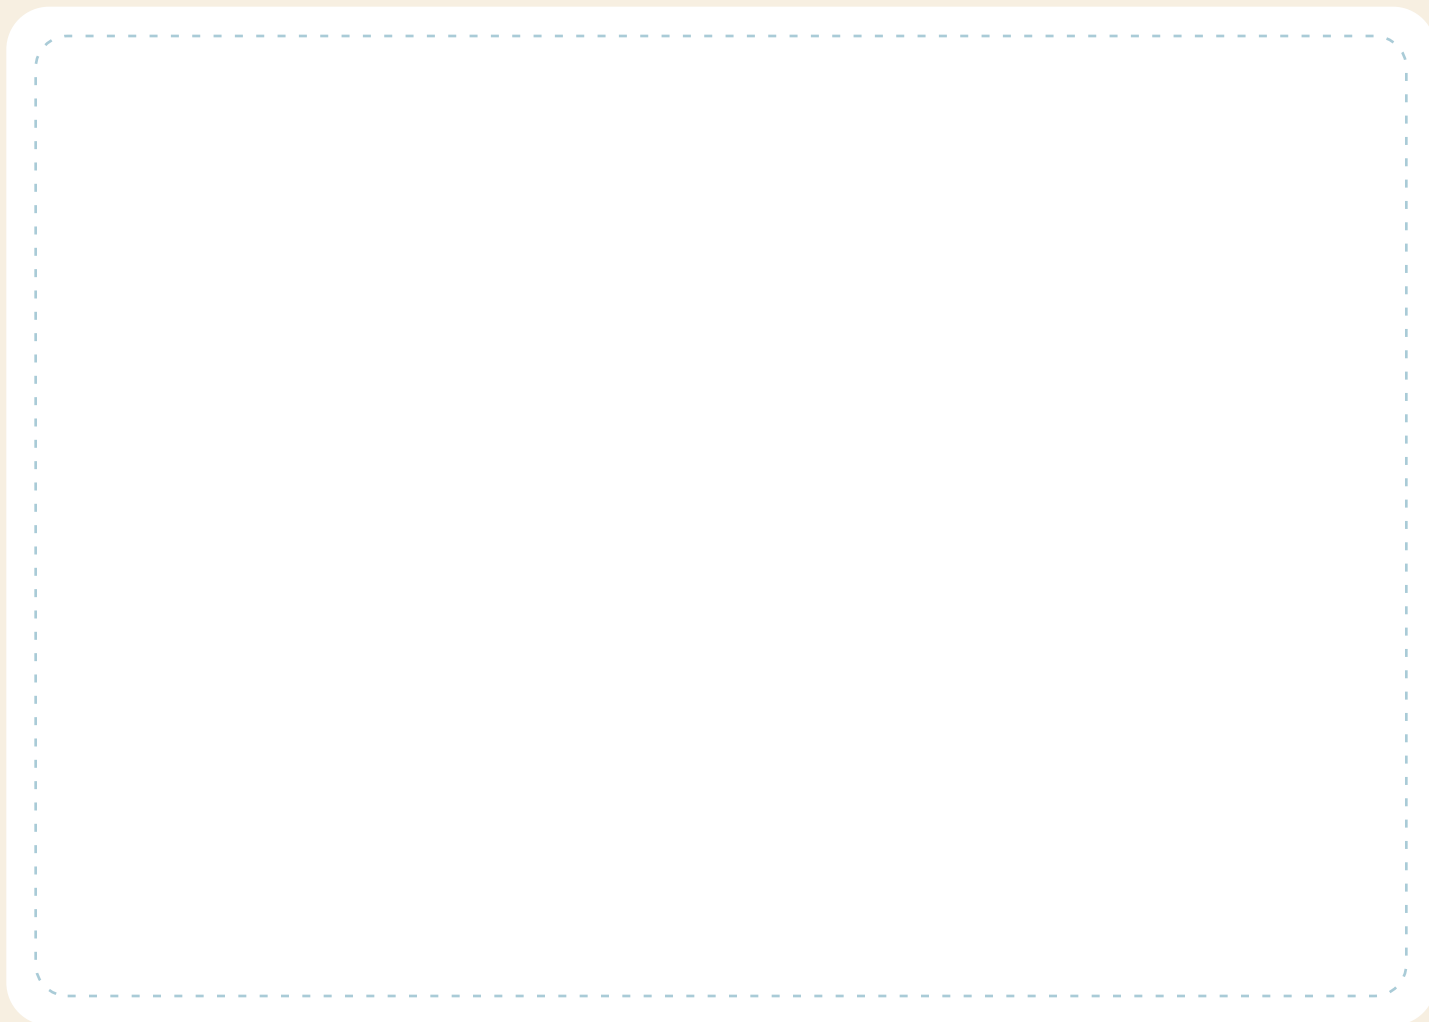

Make a Christmas Eve box together

- ☐ Something cozy
Choose Christmas jammies, socks or a familiar blanket.
- ☐ Something to read
Tuck in a favorite story, a library book or a little note.
- ☐ Something to enjoy
Pick an age-appropriate snack; check allergies.
- ☐ Something to do
Add a puzzle, a coloring page or your Santa letter.
- ☐ Something kind
Write a thank-you or plan a small kindness together.

A shoebox, basket or tote you already own is perfect. Familiar favorites count - this tradition does not need new purchases.
